DESCRIPTION

Bay stallion, star-snip, hind pasterns white, 15.3½ hands high, foaled in 1884. A fine, large, well made horse with plenty of substance and quality. An exceedingly well-bred horse, and a high-class race horse. Secured his record in a five-heat winning race, and was only beaten a heat in 2:10¼ by but a few feet. ST. VINCENT'S opportunities have not been good; he has but few foals out of good mares. His list of performers are all trotters. He has never sired a pacer. Lord Vincent 2:08¾, by him, is, everything considered, one of the very best trotters of the present day. He was far from being a sound horse, still, even in that condition, he raced better and struggled harder than most horses that are free from soreness. ST. VINCENT will get great trotters, for in the last two years he has had a better class of mares. I like his breeding and am confident that he will sire great race horses.

ST. VINCENT will stand at the stables of the Mt. Sterling Stock Yards Co. at ### Old Age.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of Nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. The very shadow of eclipse which threatens it, makes it the more prized. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom and counsel. That is old age as it should be. But old age as it so often is, means nothing but a second childhood of mind and body. What makes the difference? Very largely the care of the stomach. In youth and the full strength of manhood, it doesn't seem to matter how we treat the stomach. We abuse it, overwork it, injure it. We don't suffer from it much. But when age comes the stomach is worn out. It can't prepare and distribute the needed nourishment to the body, and the body, unenriched, falls into senile decay. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a wonderful medicine for old people whose stomachs are "weak" and whose digestions are "poor." Its invigorating effects are felt by mind as well as body. It takes the sting from old age, and makes old people strong.

Carried a Gun.

J. Cary McAllister, of 45 Crawford street, Newark, N. J., called at the White House Wednesday afternoon and subsequently was arrested and held for examination as to his mental condition. He was armed with a revolver, which he said, he wanted to use on a mesmerist whom he said was ready to kill him. He is twenty-six years old. He said his trouble followed his rejection by a Newark girl.

Try it

There is nothing so difficult as the describing of a thing of supreme excellence in language that will convey the real facts without the appearance of exaggeration.

Capt. Ed Porter Thompson, by authority of Gov. Beckham and Adj. Gen. Murray, has begun the work of compiling the roster of all the organizations of Kentucky soldiers that did service in the Confederate army. The compilation is in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the last General Assembly.

A party of surveyors will be sent by the United States Geological Survey to southwestern Kentucky to investigate deposits of lead, zinc and other minerals.

EXAMINATION ANSWERS.

Some Amusing Ones Given by Civil Service Applicants.

A candidate for the position of keeper in a menagerie, says the New York Post, was asked the other day, when undergoing the civil service examination: "If the prize lion sprained his ankle, what would you do to give him relief?"

"I'd get some liniment," was the answer, "and put my hand in between the iron bars and put the liniment gently on the lion's ankle." "I suppose you know," was added in parenthesis, "that I've got a wooden arm."

Another applicant, aiming at appointments as police matron, was asked what were her special qualifications for the place. "I've been a widow off and on for 20 years," she answered.

The examiners of the local civil service commission tell of many amusing errors. Defining the word "horizontally," one applicant wrote: "It means going or turning in a crooked way." "Infectious," another asserted, "means a disease very much in the person, so as to have immediate attention and quietness, with no fear of contagion."

A shorthand writer was asked to take down the following from dictation and transcribe it: "In this country we have not yet formed the habit of looking at the civil service as offering a career; we are only emerging from looking on it as a political function." As the candidate wrote it out, it read: "In this country we have not yet formed the habit of looking on the civil service as from a mirror. We are only emerging from the habit of looking on civil service as a political fiction."

George N. Fleck, of Louisville, was accidentally killed Friday at the Great Northern Hotel, Chicago in the presence of his bride of only five days. Mr. Fleck was unpacking a valise, and in taking out a pistol, dropped it. The weapon was discharged and the bullet entered Mr. Fleck's mouth and penetrated his brain. A coroner's jury was quickly impaneled and, after hearing Mrs. Fleck's statement, brought in a verdict of accidental killing.
